

Sasakawa Fellowship Fund for Japanese Language Education Programme

Native Speaker Teacher Cluster Support

The Sasakawa Fellowship Fund for Japanese Language Education offers a grant of up to $100 per meeting, for up to three meetings per year for Native Speaker Teacher Clusters in New Zealand.

Application procedure

Complete this form and forward it to Naomi Collins (address below). Applicants should note that once an application has been approved, it can take up to a month for the agreed funds to reach the recipient.

What is the make-up and size of your group (eg 10 native speaker teachers from the Central region)?

How many times is your group likely to meet in the year of application?

What are the likely dates of proposed meetings in the year of application?

What is the purpose of your meeting/s? What are the expected outcomes? (We appreciate that it may be difficult to provide much information about second and third meetings at the time of application for the first. Please give as much detail as you are able now, and complete the attachments to this form when you are ready to claim the grant for subsequent meetings)

Meeting 1:

Meeting 2:

Meeting 3:

If approved, how will the money be spent? (eg petrol vouchers for participants, room hire etc)

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

At the end of the year of application, group organisers must prepare a brief (single page) report including names of participants, feedback from participants, and a brief statement explaining how the money was spent.

For further information, contact the Programme Co-ordinator, Sasakawa Fellowship Fund for Japanese Language Education (Naomi Collins, Ruawhoro Centre, Massey University, PO Box 410, Napier, 4140), or n.e.collins@massey.ac.nz (ph: 06 8459390 x 80758 or 0274995170)